In London securities were quiet and firm, and money easy and below the Bank of England rate. The local foreign exchange market was dull and steady, while gold was firm, but very dull, there being no new consolidations or influences affecting the premium. On gold loans the rates paid to have balances carried were 3, 2, 2, and 1 per cent. The Assistant Treasurer paid out $300,000 in called fives, and $250,000 in coin interest on the public debt. The day's operations at the Gold Exchange Bank covered: Gold clearings, $29,870,000; gold balances, $1,778,756; currency balances, $2,010,15. The quotations for gold were as follows:
